Collection Overview

Repository:	Archives of American Art
Creator:	Leo Castelli Gallery
Title:	Leo Castelli Gallery records
Dates:	circa 1880-2000, bulk 1957-1999
Quantity:	217.7 linear feet
Abstract:	The Leo Castelli Gallery records measure 217.7 linear feet and date from circa 1880-2000, with the bulk of the materials dating from the gallery's founding in 1957 through Leo Castelli's death in 1999. The major influence of dealer Leo Castelli and his gallery on the development of mid-to-late twentieth century modern art in America is well-documented through business and scattered personal correspondence, administrative files, exhibition files, extensive artists' files and printed materials, posters, awards and recognitions, photographs, and sound and video recordings. Also included are records for the subsidiary firms of Castelli Graphics and Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films.
Language:	Some records are in French, Italian and German.

Administrative Information

Provenance

The Leo Castelli Gallery records were donated to the Archives of American Art by Leo Castelli's wife, Barbara Bertozzi Castelli, and his children, Nina Castelli Sundell and Jean-Christophe Castelli in 2007.

Related Material

Available in the Archives of America Art are three oral history interviews with Leo Castelli. Paul Cummings interviewed Castelli between May 14, 1969 and June 8, 1973; Barbara Rose in July, 1969; and Andrew Decker on May 22, 1997.

Available Formats

The bulk of the Exhibition Files and the Photographs Series were digitized in 2015-2016 and are available on the Archives of American Art's website. Materials which have not been scanned include routine financial materials, blank pages, blank versos of photographs, and duplicates. In some cases, exhibition catalogs and other publications have had their covers, title pages, and relevant pages scanned.

Processing Information

In 1968 small portions of the records were loaned for microfilming in increments. These loans were later included as part of the 2007 gift of the gallery archive. Between 2008-2010, the records were arranged and described to an intermediate level by Kim Dixon and Sarah Haug. The digitized portions of the Exhibition Files and Photographs Series were re-processed by Judy Ng in 2015, with funding provided by the Roy Lichtenstein Foundation.

Historical Note

Leo Castelli (1907-1999) was one of America's most noted contemporary art dealers and opened the Leo Castelli Gallery in New York City in 1957. The gallery showcased cutting edge American contemporary art, including Surrealism, Abstract Expressionism, Neo-Dada, Pop Art, Op Art, Color Field painting, Hard-edge painting, Lyrical Abstraction, Minimal Art, Conceptual Art, and Neo-expressionism, among other movements.

Leo Castelli was born as Leo Krauss on September 4, 1907 in Trieste, of Italian and Austro-Hungarian Jewish origin. He married art dealer Ileana Sonnabend in 1932 and the couple lived in Paris up until World War II. They had a daughter, Nina Castelli Sundell. In Paris, Castelli opened his first gallery in 1939. At that time, he was interested in the European Surrealists.

For years after Castelli moved to New York, he worked in his father-in-law's garment business. However, he organized his first American exhibition in 1951, the famous Ninth Street Show of 1951, a seminal event of Abstract Expressionism.

In 1957, he opened the Leo Castelli Gallery in his townhome on E. 77th Street between Madison and Fifth Avenues in New York City. Castelli initially featured European Surrealism, but also curated exhibitions of American Abstract painters, including Jackson Pollock, Willem de Kooning, Cy Twombly, Friedel Dzubas, and Norman Bluhm.

In 1958, Castelli discovered Pop artists Robert Rauschenberg and Jasper Johns and forged a life-long nurturing relationship with both artists. The gallery then began focusing more on Pop Art, Minimalism and Conceptual Art. Beginning in the early 1960s, Castelli's stable included Richard Artschwager, Lee Bontecou, Chryssa, John Chamberlain, Ronald Davis, Dan Flavin, Donald Judd, Ellsworth Kelly, Joseph Kosuth, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Morris, Bruce Nauman, Larry Poons, James Rosenquist, Ed Ruscha, Salvatore Scarpitta, Richard Serra, Frank Stella, Andy Warhol, and Lawrence Weiner.

Leo and Ileana divorced in 1959, and Ileana returned to Europe. She later moved back to New York and opened a gallery close to Castelli's. The two remained close and together they established the joint venture of Castelli-Sonnabend Films and Tapes to accommodate artists interested in new media.

In the 1970s Leo Castelli opened a downtown SoHo branch of the Leo Castelli Gallery at 420 West Broadway. In the 1980s he opened a second larger downtown exhibition space on Greene Street also in SoHo.

Leo Castelli's second wife was Antoinette Castelli, with whom he also opened Castelli Graphics, an art gallery devoted to prints and photographs, mostly those by Castelli artists. The couple also had a son together, Jean-Christophe Castelli. In 1995 Leo Castelli married Italian art historian Barbara Bertozzi Castelli. She directs the Leo Castelli Gallery today, showing many of the same artists of the gallery's past.

Leo Castelli's unparalleled eye for quality, combined with his extraordinary skill for nurturing and promoting new art and artists, secured his position as one of the most respected and influential advocates of contemporary art for nearly five decades.

Scope and Content Note

The Leo Castelli Gallery records measure 217.7 linear feet and date from circa 1880-2000, with the bulk of the materials dating from the gallery's founding in 1957 through Leo Castelli's death in 1999. The major influence of dealer Leo Castelli and his gallery on the development of mid-to-late twentieth century modern art in America is well-documented through business and scattered personal correspondence, administrative files, exhibition files, extensive artists' files and printed materials, posters, awards and recognitions, photographs, and audio and video recordings. Also included are records for the subsidiary firms of Castelli Graphics and Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films.

The records document the gallery's daily business operations, exhibitions, spaces/buildings, collaborations and joint ventures with other galleries and museums, and its relationship with many artists, dealers, and clients. Artists particularly well-represented throughout the collection include Hanne Darboven, Dan Flavin, Jasper Johns, Donald Judd, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Morris, Bruce Nauman, Claes Oldenburg, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Richard Serra, Frank Stella, Andy Warhol, and Lawrence Weiner.

Records pre-dating the gallery's establishment in 1957 are primarily newspaper and magazine clippings related to artists, personal photographs and photographs of works of art, and scattered personal business records of Leo Castelli.

General Correspondence is extensive at circa 25 linear feet and consists primarily of the gallery's and Leo Castelli's named and subject correspondence files concerning the gallery's daily operations, exhibitions, artwork installation and fabrication, appraisals, inquiries, loans, sales, consignments, personal and business relationships with artists, and other topics. The general correspondence is arranged either by name of correspondent or topic, and is with museums and galleries, collectors, business associates, artists, employees, and friends. Notes, scattered photographs and slides, and printed materials are often found as enclosures. Leo Castelli's personal correspondence is also found here and consists primarily of solicitations, requests for advice, notes of thanks, congratulations, and invitations.

Letters written by artists in the gallery's stable are somewhat limited. There are scattered letters from artists Christo, Chryssa, Nassos Daphnis, Hanne Darboven, Marisol, Dan Flavin, Jasper Johns, Frederick Kiesler, Robert Morris, Hans Namuth, Bruce Nauman, Nam June Paik, Ray Parker, James Rosenquist, Edward Ruscha, Salvatore Scarpitta, Frank Stella, Cy Twombly, and Jack Tworkov. There are also letters about artists in this series filed under the artists' name.

Collectors and dealers represented within the correspondence include the De Menil family, Mrs. Henry Epstein, Ben Heller, Giuseppe Panza, Alan Power, John and Kimiko Powers, Robert and Carolyn Rowan, Robert and Ethel Scull, and Burton and Emily Tremaine. Museums and galleries for which there is considerable correspondence includes the Dwan Gallery, Ferus Gallery, the Jewish Museum, Museum of Modern Art, Sidney Janis Gallery, Stedelijk Museum, Whitney Museum of American Art, and the Ileana Sonnabend Galerie.

The materials arranged in General Correspondence were originally marked by the gallery as "correspondence" files upon accessioning, and, are thus arranged into their own series. However, in some cases, there appears to be little difference between the General Correspondence and the Administrative Files. Thus, researchers are encouraged to reference both series.

Administrative Files document a wide variety of the gallery's activities and business. Essentially, these are files that were arranged by the gallery according to subject or topic and cover almost all activities except specific exhibitions. These files include records and correspondence about buildings and space, advertising, appraisals, auctions, consignments, loans, miscellaneous business correspondence, index cards, business arrangements with artists, information about artists, interviews with artists (transcripts), history of the gallery, mailings, photograph requests, shipping, and other topics. There are staff notebooks and files and Leo Castelli's notebooks and notes from the late 1950s through the early 1990s. Extensive outgoing chronological correspondence filed in this series dates from 1964-1977. Also found are transcripts of interviews with Leo Castelli, biographical material, and scattered photographs.

Researchers should note that the Administrative Files often overlap and complement the General Correspondence. However, they focus slightly more distinctly on gallery business activities and are arranged mostly by subject or topic, except for the chronological business correspondence. Researchers are encouraged to reference both series. For example, correspondence with and about Jasper Johns may be found in both series, but the administrative files most likely focus on a specific loan, consignment, or business activity or transaction.

Exhibition files provide a thorough history of the gallery's exhibitions, as well as the fabrication and installation of artwork for exhibitions. These files include correspondence, exhibition catalogs, guest books, lists of exhibitions by artist and by year, press releases, sketches and notes, and scattered financial records. Photographs document over 650 exhibitions at Leo Castelli Gallery, including The Ninth Street Show organized by Castelli in 1951, and over 200 exhibitions at other galleries.

Extensive artists' files comprise approximately 40% of the records and are a rich resource of printed and compiled information about the careers of over 120 artists and their relationship with Leo Castelli and the gallery. There are exhibition announcements and catalogs, flyers, invitations, magazine articles and clippings, newspaper clippings, posters, press releases, photographs, and a handful of books. Nearly half of the series is comprised of black and white photographs of artwork, presumably handled by the Leo Castelli Gallery.

Additional printed materials include exhibition announcements, flyers, invitations, magazine articles and clippings, newspaper clippings, press releases, and exhibition posters. Exhibition catalogs are filed with the exhibitions files. The general archives files provide a chronological history of the gallery and its exhibitions. There are also files concerning Leo Castelli and numerous art-related topics. Exhibition posters are found here as well.

Artwork is limited and includes a few works of art and signed posters. Artists represented here include photographer Gianfranco Gorgoni, Robert Morris, Bruce Nauman, Richard Serra and Andy Warhol, as well as others.

The records of the subsidiary Castelli Graphics New York consist of correspondence and administrative files relating to general operations and the sale and loan of prints. Also found are exhibition files, sales records, and scattered financial records. The series provides a wealth of information about Castelli Graphics collaborations with Multiples Inc. in the 1970s.

Also found in the collection are records of Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films, a joint business venture between Leo Castelli Gallery and Sonnabend Gallery from 1974-1985. Records include correspondence, administrative files, exhibition files, artists' files, printed materials, sales and rental records, photographs, and financial records.

The importance and stature of Leo Castelli and the Leo Castelli Gallery to the arts community in New York City and beyond is documented by numerous awards and recognitions, such as framed and unframed certificates, plaques, statues, medals, and scattered photographs.

Nearly seven linear feet of photographs include professional black and white original prints, scattered color photographs, color transparencies, slides and negatives, and disassembled photo albums. The photographs primarily depict social and art events and functions; family and friends of Leo Castelli; and portraits of Leo Castelli and artists and of Leo Castelli with artists, including Richard Artschwager, Jasper Johns, Roy Lichtenstein, Bruce Nauman, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Salvatore Scarpitta, Richard Serra, Frank Stella, and Andy Warhol. Photographs of exhibitions and exhibition installations are filed with the exhibition files.

Sound and video recordings include sound and video art, performances, interviews with artists and Leo Castelli, recordings from and of exhibitions, and television publicity recorded on sound cassettes, phonograph records (vinyl and lacquer), videocassettes (U-matic, VHS, Betamax), and videocartridges. Artists represented include Vito Acconci, Robert Barry, Barbara Bloom, Hannah Collins, Hanne Darboven, Dan Flavin, Laura Grisi, Jasper Johns, Jeff Koons, Roy Lichtenstein, Bruce Nauman, Claes Oldenburg, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Ed Ruscha, Salvatore Scarpitta, Doug and Mike Starn, and Lawrence Weiner, among others.

Series Descriptions/Container Listing

Series 1: Correspondence, 1948-1999, bulk 1957-1997

24.4 linear feet; Boxes 1-23, 191, OVs 233-236

General Correspondence is extensive at circa 24.6 linear feet and consists primarily of the gallery's and Leo Castelli's named and subject correspondence files concerning the gallery's daily operations, exhibitions, artwork installation and fabrication, appraisals, inquiries, loans, sales, consignments, personal and business relationships with artists, and other topics. The general correspondence is arranged either by name of correspondent or topic, and is with museums and galleries, collectors, business associates, artists, employees, and friends. Notes, scattered photographs and slides, and printed materials are often found as enclosures. Leo Castelli's personal correspondence is also found here and consists primarily of solicitations, requests for advice, notes of thanks, congratulations, and invitations.

Letters written by artists in the gallery's stable are somewhat limited. There are scattered letters from artists Christo, Chryssa, Nassos Daphnis, Hanne Darboven, Marisol, Dan Flavin, Jasper Johns, Frederick Kiesler, Robert Morris, Hans Namuth, Bruce Nauman, Nam June Paik, Ray Parker, James Rosenquist, Edward Ruscha, Salvatore Scarpitta, Frank Stella, Cy Twombly, and Jack Tworkov. There are also letters about artists in this series filed under the artists' name.

Collectors represented in the correspondence include the De Menil family, Mrs. Henry Epstein, Ben Heller, Giuseppe Panza, Alan Power, John and Kimiko Powers, Robert and Carolyn Rowan, Robert and Ethel Scull, and Burton and Emily Tremaine. Museums and galleries for which there is considerable correspondence includes the Dwan Gallery, Ferus Gallery, the Jewish Museum (NYC), Museum of Modern Art (MOMA), Pasadena Art Museum, Sidney Janis Gallery, Stedelijk Museum, Walker Art Center (MN), Whitney Museum of American Art, and numerous European galleries including Galerie Bruno Bischofberger (Switzerland) and Ileana Sonnabend Galerie (Paris).

Of interest is correspondence between Leo Castelli and Ileana Sonnabend in the early 1960s describing artists and artwork, gallery openings, and collaborations between the Leo Castelli Gallery and the Sonnabend Gallery in Paris. Additionally, the correspondence between Leo Castelli and his staff while he was traveling in Europe during the summers of 1961-1967 gives insight into the daily activities of the gallery during its earlier years. Also found are a series of handmade postcards from artist Paul Waldman, oversized letters from Hanne Darboven, and a letter from Marcel Duchamp (June 1980) requesting Castelli's participation in the "Arts Committee for American Chess."

The materials arranged in General Correspondence were originally marked by the gallery as "correspondence" files upon accessioning, and, are thus arranged into their own series. However, in some cases, there appears to be little difference between the General Correspondence and the Administrative Files. Thus, researchers are encouraged to reference both series. Some records, generally from the 1960s, appear to have suffered water damage and for preservation reasons have been physically placed in a separate box at the end of the collection, but are listed alphabetically in the folder list.

Series 2: Administrative Files, 1941-1999, bulk 1970s-1990s

17.3 linear feet; Boxes 24-39, 192-193, OVs 237-238

Administrative Files document a wide variety of the gallery's activities and business. Essentially, these are files that were arranged by the gallery according to subject or topic and cover almost all activities except specific exhibitions. These files include records and correspondence about buildings and space, advertising, appraisals, auctions, consignments, loans, miscellaneous business correspondence, index cards, business arrangements with artists, information about many artists, interviews with artists (transcripts), history of the gallery, mailings, photograph requests, shipping, and other topics. There are staff notebooks and files and Leo Castelli's notebooks and notes from the late 1950s through the early 1990s. Extensive outgoing chronological correspondence filed in this series dates from 1964-1977. Also found are transcripts of interviews with Leo Castelli, biographical material, and scattered photographs.

Researchers should note that the Administrative Files often overlap and complement the General Correspondence. However, they focus slightly more distinctly on gallery business activities and are arranged mostly by subject or topic, except for the chronological business correspondence. Researchers are encouraged to reference both series. For example, correspondence with and about Jasper Johns may be found in both series, but the administrative files most likely focus on a specific loan, consignment, or business activity or transaction.

Series 3: Exhibition Files, 1951-1999

18.7 linear feet; Boxes 40-56, 192, 194-196, 308-309, OVs 239-241, 280

An extensive history of the gallery's exhibitions are documented through correspondence, exhibition catalogs, guest books from early exhibitions (1957-1966), exhibition lists by artist and year, press releases, sketches and notes, and scattered financial records of over 800 exhibitions.

Black and white photographs, scattered negatives, and transparencies provide a photographic record of over 650 exhibitions held from 1957-1998 at all of the various Leo Castelli Gallery locations: 4 E. 77th Street, 65 Thompson Street, 142 Greene Street, 420 W. Broadway, 578 Broadway, and the W. 108th St. Warehouse. Also found are photographs of The Ninth Street Show which Leo Castelli organized in 1951.

Artists represented in this series are extensive and include: Diane Blell, Dan Flavin, Jasper Johns, Joseph Kosuth, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Morris, Bruce Nauman, Robert Rauschenberg, Richard Serra, and Mike and Doug Starn, among many others. Additional information about exhibitions can be found in the Artists Files and Printed Materials.

The series is arranged as 6 subseries:

- 3.1: General Files, circa 1952-1999
- 3.2: Anniversary Shows, circa 1952-1999
- 3.3: Benefit Shows, circa 1952-1999
- 3.4: Group Shows, circa 1952-1999
- 3.5: Solo Shows, circa 1952-1999
- 3.6: Solo Shows, Other Galleries, circa 1952-1999

The bulk of this series has been scanned. Routine financial materials and Subseries 3.6 (Solo Shows, Other Galleries) have not been scanned.

3.5: Solo Shows, circa 1952-1999

These files contain solo artist exhibition files, including correspondence, exhibition catalogs, price lists, floor plans, press releases, printed material, and installation photographs. There are also scattered artwork installation instructions and financial records primarily related to fabrication of artwork, sketches and diagrams, and notes. Some negatives are interspersed. Materials related to exhibitions by Castelli artists at other galleries are also found here as noted in the folder title.

Material is arranged alphabetically by artist name.

Series 4: Artists Files, 1913-1999, bulk 1960s-1990s

80.8 linear feet; Boxes 57-133, 197-208, OVs 242-243

The Artists Files are the largest series in the records and a rich resource of printed and compiled information about the careers of over 120 artists and their relationships with Leo Castelli and the gallery. The series consists primarily of printed materials, posters, and photographs of artwork.

The series is arranged as 2 subseries:

4.1: Artists Files, 1938-1999

4.2: Photographs, 1913-1998

4.1: Artists Files, 1938-1999

Artists files consist of printed materials documenting the careers of over 120 artists. Files for nearly all of the artists represented by Leo Castelli Gallery are found and include magazine articles and clippings, newspaper clippings, exhibition announcements, catalogs, posters, invitations, flyers, and press releases. The amount of documentation for each artist varies widely, as does the type of materials found. Particularly extensive artists' files exist for Nassos Daphnis, Hanne Darboven, Dan Flavin, Jasper Johns, Donald Judd, Ellsworth Kelly, Joseph Kosuth, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Morris, Bruce Nauman, Claes Oldenburg, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Edward Ruscha, Richard Serra, Frank Stella, Cy Twombly, and Andy Warhol.

4.2: Photographs, 1913-1998

Over 34 linear feet of photographs of works of art are found here. Artists represented with extensive photographs include Jasper Johns, Donald Judd, Roy Lichtenstein, Robert Morris, Bruce Nauman, Claes Oldenburg, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Richard Serra, Frank Stella, and Andy Warhol. Photographic materials consist of black and white images, color images, color transparencies, slides, and negatives. Photographs of artists are arranged with other photographs in Series 11, Photographs.

Folders are arranged alphabetically by the artists' last name. The photographs were originally filed by the gallery in a series of binders and folders; this arrangement has been maintained. The gallery assigned a numbering system to some of the photographs which has been written on the individual folders, but not in the finding aid.

Series 5: Printed Materials, 1949-1998

23.5 linear feet; Boxes 134-153, 209-211, OVs 244-274, 276, 300, RDs 301-306

Printed materials are a rich resource of information about the history of the gallery, information about Leo Castelli, and the gallery's significant role in the contemporary art world. Materials include exhibition announcements, flyers, invitations, magazine articles and clippings, newspaper clippings, press releases, and many exhibition posters representing a visual exhibition history of the gallery.

The series is arranged as 4 subseries:

- 5.1: General Archives, 1949-1998
- 5.2: Leo Castelli, 1951-1998
- 5.3: Subject Files, 1963-1995
- 5.4: Posters, 1959-1997

5.1: General, 1949-1998

This subseries contains exhibition announcements, flyers, invitations, magazine articles and clippings, newspaper clippings, and press releases from the Leo Castelli Gallery and other galleries and museums. The materials document the exhibition history of the gallery, Leo Castelli and his artists, and other art-related topics of interest to the gallery.

5.4: Posters, 1959-1997

Found within the printed materials are 82 exhibition posters, many of which are rare. The bulk of the posters are for exhibitions at Leo Castelli Gallery, but there are also some posters from other galleries and museums, and are so indicated in the folder title. Posters that are original and/or signed prints have been separated and housed in Series 6, Artwork. The posters are arranged alphabetically by the name of artist.

Series 7: Castelli Graphics, circa 1950-1999, bulk mid 1970s-early 1990s

16 linear feet; Boxes 154-169

The records of the subsidiary Castelli Graphics consist of correspondence, administrative and operations files, exhibition files, limited sales records, and financial records. The company was created in 1969 and operated by Leo Castelli's second wife Antoinette (Toiny) Castelli. Castelli Graphics published and co-published fine arts prints and exhibited fine arts photographers. Many of the artists were also in the Leo Castelli Gallery stable and included Jasper Johns, Roy Lichtenstein, Claes Oldenburg, and Robert Rauschenberg. This series provides a wealth of information about Castelli Graphics collaborations with Multiples Inc. in the 1970s.

The bulk of the series is comprised of correspondence and administrative files relating to daily operations, such as the sale and loan of prints. Also found are exhibition files, sales records, and scattered financial records. Some additional materials related to Castelli Graphics are also found throughout other series in the collection.

The series is arranged as 5 subseries:

- 7.1: Correspondence, 1969-1996
- 7.2: Administrative Files, 1969-1993
- 7.3: Exhibition Files, circa 1950-1996
- 7.4: Sales Records, 1969-1993
- 7.5: Financial Records, 1969-1999

7.1: Correspondence, 1969-1996

Correspondence is with collectors, museums, and galleries regarding consignments, loans, purchases, and exhibitions. There is limited correspondence from the 1980s.

Series 8: Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films, 1969-1998

5.6 linear feet; Boxes 170-174, 214, OVs 279-281

Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films was established in 1974 as a joint business venture between Leo Castelli Gallery and Sonnabend Gallery to promote and distribute art films and videos. They soon expanded to represent over 35 visual media artists and 400 videos and films, including artists Bruce Nauman, Robert Rauschenberg, Richard Serra, William Wegman and Lawrence Weiner. Many works distributed by Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films were shown at the Leo Castelli Gallery, as well as throughout the United States and internationally. After Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films closed in 1985 the Leo Castelli Gallery took over the administration of distributing and marketing existing films for their artists. Many of the actual recordings are found in Series 12, Sound and Video Recordings.

Records include correspondence, administrative files, exhibition files, artists' files, printed materials, sales and rental records, photographs, and financial records. Additional materials related to Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films, especially records relating to individual artists and those created after 1985, are found throughout other series in the collection.

The series is arranged as 8 subseries:

- 8.1: Correspondence, 1972-1996
- 8.2: Administrative Files, 1969-1997
- 8.3: Exhibition Files, 1971-1998
- 8.4: Artists' Files, 1969-1989
- 8.5: Printed Materials, circa 1974-1987

8.3: Exhibition Files, 1971-1998

Exhibition files include correspondence, film descriptions, invoices, sketches, postcards and invitation cards from Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films for films and tapes exhibited at the Leo Castelli Gallery and other galleries. Of interest are receipts from the production of Barbaralee Diamonstein's "Inside New York's Art World" interview series. Exhibitions held at Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes + Films are filed first, followed by exhibitions held at other galleries. Folders are then arranged alphabetically by artist's last name or exhibition name, and chronologically by date of the exhibit. Additional photographs of exhibitions are found in Series 3, Exhibition Files.

Series 10: Photographs, circa 1880-1997, bulk 1960s-1990s

6.6 linear feet; Boxes 177-180, 229-231, OVs 283-299

Photographs consist of professional black and white photos, scattered color photographs, color transparencies, slides and negatives, and disassembled photo albums. The photographs depict social events and functions, family and friends of Leo Castelli, Leo Castelli with artists, and professional portraits of Leo Castelli and many artists, including Richard Artschwager, Jasper Johns, Roy Lichtenstein, Bruce Nauman, Robert Rauschenberg, James Rosenquist, Salvatore Scarpitta, Richard Serra, Frank Stella, and Andy Warhol. There are also images of artists at events and in their studios. The work of photographer Hans Namuth is of images of the Castelli family. Although there are some images of performance art and other exhibitions, the majority of photographs of exhibitions and works of art are not filed here, but are filed with Exhibition Files and Artists Files.

The series is arranged as 2 subseries:

10.1: Photographs, circa 1918-1997

10.2: Photo Albums, circa 1880-1994

This series has been scanned in its entirety.

10.2: Photograph Albums, circa 1880-1994

Dismantled photograph albums document the life of Leo Castelli through family photographs, portraits, and photographs of Castelli with artists and friends. Included are color slides of artists' portraits. There are also photocopied images found, perhaps filed as replacements for originals removed at some point prior to donation to the Archives of American Art.

Series 11: Sound and Video Recordings, 1959-2000

9.7 linear feet; Boxes 181-190, 232

Series includes video art, sound art, performance art, exhibition-related media, interviews, documentaries, and publicity news clips related to the Leo Castelli gallery and the artists it represented. Grouped under artwork and performance are recordings of performances, sound art, video art, components of multi-media art, and other documentation of specific artworks. Artists include Vito Acconci, Robert Barry, Hannah Collins, Merce Cunningham, John Gibson, Laura Grisi, Richard Landry, Paul McMahon, Bruce Nauman, Hermann Nitsch, Ed Ruscha, Salvatore Scarpitta, John Sirica, Chas. B. Swann, Ned Sublette, and Lawrence Weiner. Recordings include both commercially-produced copies and rare or unique archival material, including 15 videocassettes (9 U-matic and 6 VHS), 6 sound cassettes, and 9 vinyl phonograph records.

Exhibition documentation includes recordings that document specific shows and openings on 6 videocassettes (5 VHS and 1 U-matic), and 2 lacquer phonograph records. Interviews include extended interviews with Leo Castelli and artists he represented, including, Roy Lichtenstein, Claes Oldenbergh, Robert Rauschenberg, Robert Thierren, and an appearance of Dan Flavin and Donald Judd at the Centre Pompidou. Interviews are on 14 videocassettes (8 VHS and 6 U-matic), 1 videocartridge (Catrivation), and 1 sound cassette. Documentaries include commercially distributed or broadcast television works, generally about a single artist or artwork or about Castelli himself, on 29 videocassettes (11 U-matic and 18 VHS). Publicity videos are generally news programs that include brief coverage of Castelli Gallery among other stories on 24 videocassettes (20 VHS and 4 U-matic). Unidentified recordings are found on 3 videocassettes (1 Betamax and 2 VHS) and 1 videocartridge (EAIJ Endless Loop).

Video and sound recordings are arranged by form of material, with artwork and performance documentation first, followed by exhibition documentation, interviews, documentaries, and publicity. Within each group, items are arranged by artist or subject. Publicity videos are arranged by program title. Three unidentified videos in obsolete formats are filed at the end of the series.

List of Exhibitions

Below is a chronological listing of over 850 exhibitions and events held at the Leo Castelli Gallery from 1957 to 1999; included are exhibitions at 4 E 77 St (1957-1989), 65 Thompson (1989-1994), 108th St Warehouse (1968-1970), 142 Greene St (1980-1988), 420 W Broadway (1971-1999), and 578 Broadway (1988-1997). Castelli Graphics exhibitions from 1969-1996 and Castelli/Sonnabend Tapes and Films exhibitions from 1974-1984 are also included and are noted when known.

Note that this list is not comprehensive. In particular, Castelli Graphics exhibitions from the 1980s and early 1990s are incomplete. Sources used to compile this index include exhibition schedules and lists, installation photographs, announcements, clippings, and other printed materials from the Leo Castelli Gallery records, and the Leo Castelli Gallery website (www.castelligallery.com).

Exhibitions are listed in chronological order by title, if known, and gallery address.
